PRESENT FLOW OF
SPECIAL INTELLIGENCE

COORDINATION STAFF

I MISSION

Under the policy guidance of the DAD/RR the Chief, Coordination Staff is charged with the responsibility for the coordination of foreign economic intelligence production activities; development, implementation and control of foreign economic intelligence plans and production for the fulfillment of ORR responsibilities in the intelligence field.

II FUNCTIONS

The Chief, Coordination Staff shall:

A. Determine for planning purposes what foreign economic intelligence should be produced and presented in order to:

1. Reduce to the minimum the element of surprise in foreign affairs affecting the national security.

2. Provide the foreign economic intelligence basis for the formulation, execution and appraisal of national policies, strategic plans, operational decisions and courses of action.

3. Ensure that all vital foreign economic intelligence fields are adequately covered, and provide for production of that intelligence in fields of common concern which by agreement can be produced more efficiently as a centralized activity.

B. Develop the plans and the methods of implementation for the foreign economic intelligence production responsibilities of ORR.

C. Coordinate and control the assignment of foreign economic intelligence productivity for all components of ORR and those allocations to other governmental agencies wherein authority to CIA has been delegated.

D. Receive all requests for economic intelligence production support from other CIA offices for governmental agencies and make final determination of the basic research program.

E. Determine suitability or acceptance of production responsibility; frame of reference; order of priority; establishment of deadlines; and project assignments.

F. Monitor and control the progress of foreign economic intelligence production and adjudicate adjustments in priorities when so required.

G. Provide a central facility for the review, editing, publishing, and dissemination of all foreign economic intelligence production responsibilities of ORR.

H. Assess the adequacy, accuracy and timeliness of incoming information and intelligence materials.

I. Assist in the formulation for the consolidation and establishment of requirements for action by appropriate collection and source exploitation agencies of the government.

J. Prepare and provide for use by field collection agencies of CIA, and where appropriate other governmental collection agencies, such evaluations of information reports and appraisals of source potential as may be needed to guide field collection personnel.
